AMADOR GIVING TUESDAY

Tuesday, December 1, 2026

The Sutter Creek Community Benefit Foundation will again be participating in Amador's Giving Tuesday sponsored by the Amador Community Foundation. SCCBF is your local nonprofit foundation dedicated to protecting and preserving local historical assets and the culture of Sutter Creek. If you would like to support our efforts or contribute to our cause, please visit our website, SUTTERCREEKFOUNDATION.ORG, or stop by and visit with us at our table on December 1st at St. Katherine Drexel Parish Hall.

In 2026 we:

- Continued our free spring lecture talks;
- Co-sponsored the Great Sutter Creek Duck Race, a family event;
- Awarded three, $1,000 high school scholarships;
- Co-sponsored the Fireman's Ball;
- Received a $2,000 grant from the Jackson Rancheria to install solar blinds at the historic grammar school;
- Added our scarecrow to those along Main Street;
- Hosted the second annual meet & greet for Sutter Creek based service clubs and nonprofits at the historic grammar school; and
- Thanks to fundraising efforts at the 2025 Great Sutter Creek Duck Race, the public pool at Amador High School finally received a long-awaited replacement for the old diving board in the summer of 2026.
